Peter,

NDZ

My team has left the building...literally. ☺

We have provided Kim with some information on the cost language found in previous f(3)s but we did not find much during our quick review.

My team is traveling (personal travel) for the long weekend so we are not able to provide any support until Tuesday.

UNDS

If you could please include me or Marcus Zobrist on plans forward with the ex-Independence, specifically as it relates to communications with the Navy it would be greatly appreciated! As you know, HQ would like to communicate with the Navy sooner rather than later, if possible.

I hope you are able to enjoy some of the long weekend!

I will try to check email intermittently through the weekend but if you need to reach me feel free to track me down on my cell (b) (6) . (b) (6)

Katherine
